SCRIPT EXCERPTS

DIANE

We're told by our pilot to stay close to our shelters, so we are ready to go again. But I want to take one last look around. Nick won't let me go by myself. So we find a gorgeous lookout; the Dover Fault. I say to him 'It's beautiful! You've gotta see this. I can't believe we are there. Then I say 'I can't believe we're leaving'. And I hear him say, 'I don't want to go'. But he quickly moves on, like he didn't say that at all. He says he's gonna get a picture or two. And I say, 'Okay.'

NICK

Mind if I sit here? The drunk people from our plane are snoring back there...

DIANE

Oh hello, Nick! Please do... I thought we'd lost you.

NICK

No—I just needed to get an emergency prescription filled—my medicine is in my suitcase. Nothing serious. Not like, "Ohmygod, he's off his medication." I'll stop talking now.

DIANE

It's fine.

NICK

... It's heart medicine. I've got a slight arrhythmia —nothing serious. There you go—everything you need to know about me.

DIANE

Okay. I'm allergic to bananas and I have never had the chicken pox. They both smile.

NICK

Any news yet about your husband who was flying today?

DIANE

My—? No—do you mind if we just don't talk about that. I haven't been able to get to a phone.
